ONTARIO ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

c/o London Museum of Archaeology
1600 Attawandaron Road, London, ON N6G 3M6

September & October 2005

05-5 & 05-6

Welcome Back! Below is the fall line-up of speakers and activities for the London Chapter:

- ★ Dr. Chris Ellis is the October speaker. His talk, The Crowfield Site: A Most Unusual Paleoindian Site in Southwestern Ontario, will be given on Thursday, October 13th. Chris will report on the latest findings on that fascinating and important site based on his research with Brian Deller and Jim Keron.
- ★ Our November speaker (Thursday November 10th) will be Dr. John Triggs of Wilfred Laurier University. He will be speaking on his recent archaeological research in Bermuda. His talk is entitled Searching for Governor Tucker's Mansion, Bermuda: The First Two Seasons of Excavation at an Early 17th Century Residence.
- ★ December will be the Christmas party as always. It is going to be held at the Museum on the same day as our monthly meeting would be scheduled (Thursday December 8th) beginning around 7:30 PM.

The meetings will be held at 8 pm at the London Museum of Archaeology, 1600 Attawandaron Road, near the corner of Wonderland & Fanshawe Park Road, in the northwest part of the city.
